

MAY 26 2017

U.S. District Court
Eastern District of MO
ROBERT M. SILLS,

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

Plaintiff,

Case No. 4:17-CV-00966-CDP

v.

NICK ZOTOS,

Defendant.

PLAINTIF'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

The defendant asserts that the complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted because it is barred by Missouri's five year statute of limitations. (Def.'s Memorandum of Law at p. 6-9). Not so.

As a matter of law, the plaintiff could not bring this action until he first succeeded in over-turning his criminal judgment. See Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477 (1994). Therefore, Missouri's five year statute of limitations began to run on March 18, 2013, the date the plaintiff succeeded in over-turning his conviction. See Cox v. Slay, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159517 (E.D. MO., Nov. 7, 2013) (finding that Heck rule doomed the defendant's motion to dismiss because statute of limitations for convict did not begin to run until conviction was over-turned). Accordingly, the defendant's motion to dismiss is meritless.

CONCLUSION

The defendant's motion to dismiss must be denied on the authority of Cox v. Slay, supra.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert M Sills
